Job/Person Summary

An exciting opportunity to join our growing HLTA Team.

Wallisdean is a warm, welcoming school where we nurture the whole child. Each child is seen as an individual and their unique talents and strengths are recognised, celebrated and developed further. The staff team works enthusiastically to secure good progress through developing confident and independent children who love learning. We ensure that our curriculum is kept up to date and relevant, because we recognise that the best quality learning occurs when children are motivated enthusiastic and engaged.

We are looking for an experienced HLTA who has a working knowledge of the National Curriculum. We welcome highly qualified applicants who have a passion for inclusion and can inspire children to achieve.

This position will require you to cover classes for a proportion of your week for teachers' PPA and other cover across the federation. You will contribute to the planning and preparation of lessons and mark children's work in line with the school policy. You will work with individuals and groups both within class and teaching interventions to ensure good progress.

We are looking for an HLTA who:

- hold the HLTA accreditation/qualification or a level 5 and have essential KS1 and KS2 experience.
- Experience of covering a class in the teacher's absence
- are suitably qualified (minimum equivalent NVQ3, GCSE Grade C or above in English and Mathematics).
- are keen to work as part of a team and to share best practices across the federation.
- are passionate about raising the achievement of all our children.
- have high expectations of Behaviour for Learning.
- are effective communicators with staff, parents and children alike.
- are able to deliver effective curriculum intervention programs.
- are able to deliver a creative approach to learning.

The role will include 30 minutes of lunchtime mentoring support.

If you think you can make a difference to the lives of our children and will strive to contribute fully to their learning we would like to hear from you.
